Jade and his mother had just finished their night worship and were preparing for bed when suddenly they heard a loud bang!

The dogs were barking louder than usual. It was a cold and windy night in the mountains.

You can use these questions

About the author

Vanessa David Nimbwen was born in Port Vila and still lives there. She wanted to write a children's story to share happy moments and the culture of the islands.

As a child, her favourite story was a cultural story about the coconut. Her favourite thing to do with her family is share stories about each other's day and crack a few jokes.
